- The Wisdom of Children / 280 Caf e / 280 Knickerbocker Ave.
SAT & SUN, 4 PM & 5 PM / Three short plays (about a minute each), drawn from Simon Rich's 2007 New Yorker humor piece "The Wisdom of Children," about how children and college students imagine the workings of the grownup table, UNICEF, and the US government. With a few special musical guests!
- Sleep of Reason / The Bushwick Starr / 207 Starr St.
SAT 8 – 8:45 PM / $5 / Sleep of Reason uses the allegorical narratives in Francisco Goya's prints to examine the theatrical/performance implications of prisoner abuse depicted in the Abu Ghraib photographs. The performance is set up into tableaux vivants: staged still scenes are briefly illuminated with a flash of light cutting through longer periods of darkness.
- TRANSMITTED II / Norte Maar / 83 Wycckoff Ave.
SAT 6 – 8 PM / Dance on film, choreographies by Julia K. Gleich, projected into the space, interlaced with live performance by Stephanie Miracle and sound sculpture by Ben Godward all from the living room of Norte Maar (seen from the street).
- Live Silkscreen and Image Node: Site10 / 17-17 Troutman St., 2nd Fl.
